

Laura Evans

EDUCATION

M.A., Professional Counseling, Liberty University, 2012

Concentrations: 60 hour licensure track

BA, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, 2008

Dual Major: Psychology and Communication Studies

Concentration: Clinical track

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Instructor, Human Services

Patrick Henry Community College

Courses: Counseling Basics I, Substance Abuse Case Management

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

Speaker, Virtual, ReImagine Education Conference, 2020

Topics: Mental Health in the Homeschool, Parental Self Care, Effects and care after Bullying, MH effects of COVID-19

Speaker, In Person, Le Leche League Leader Enrichment Workshop, 2019

Topic: Trauma Informed Care in Peer Breastfeeding Support

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Undergrad Research Assistant, UNCG, 2006-2008

Administered assessments and gathered data for three separate labs focused on developmental, clinical and social psychology

PRESENTATIONS

Smith, Laura (2008). "The Functions of NSSI in Borderline Personality Disorder." Poster Presentation at the North Carolina Psychological Association Conference

RELEVANT SKILLS

Proficient in online learning technology, including zoom, Canvas, Blackboard

Excellent writing skills

Professional experience with clinical charting and EHRs

